American Intelligence.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.

On the fourth day of September instant, Congress being informed that Mr. WILLIAM HENRY DRAYTON, one of the Delegates for the State of South-Carolina, had died the preceding night, and that circumstances required that his remains should be interred that evening. They

Resolved, "That Congress would in a body attend the funeral that evening, at six o'clock, as mourners, with a crape round the left arm, and would continue in mourning for the space of one month." They further Resolved, That Mr. Laurens, Mr. Mathews, and Mr. Harnet be a Committee to superintended the funeral; and that the Rev. Mr. White, the attending Chaplain, should be notified to officiate on the occasion. They also directed the Committee to invite the General Assembly, the President and Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania, the Minister Plenipotentiary of France, and other persons of distinction in town, to attend the funeral.

Accordingly at six o'clock that evening, the corse was carried in procession to Christ Church: The President, two Members of the Executive Council, the Judge of the Admiralty, and the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, and Brigadier General Hogan supported the pall. Besides the President and Members of Congress as mourners, the Minister and Consul of France, several civil and military officers of the United States, and a number of inhabitants and strangers of distinction, attended the funeral. After divine service had been performed by the Rev. Mr. White, Rector of the Episcopal Churches in this city, and one of the Chaplains of Congress, the course was interred in the adjoining cymetry.

Mr. Drayton's age did not exceed thirty-eight years; he died of a putrid fever.—His health had been almost insensibly impaired by a sedentary life, and incessant attention to business for near two years attendance on Congress, which his constitution, tho' naturally strong, was unable longer to sustain. His family was always among the number of the most respectable and opulent in South Carolina. He had taken an early and decided part in the present contest, and been honoured from time to time by his country, with the most important and confidential offices. At the time of his death he was Chief Justice of that State, and one of its Delegates to Congress. His literary attainments, acquired by good talents, and an excellent education, are well known here and in Europe, where several of his political pieces have been admired and read in different languages.

To speak particularly of his character, would perhaps be improper, in a news paper, which, like the grave, generally places the dead on a level, without respect to the wiseman or the fool, the saint or the sinner. Let this subject therefore be reserved for the pen of some impartial historian, who when he shall inform posterity, that William Henry Drayton was an honest, independent patriot, and an upright candid gentleman, will at the same time communicate facts more sufficient to establish and support his title to that character.

Saturday last arrived here in 20 days from St. Thomas's, Capt. Burrows, who informs, that two days before he sailed a Danish man of war arrived there from Algiers, who reported, that off Gibraltar he passed thro a Spanish fleet of 40 sail of the line, and 30 frigates, with transports, having on board 20,000 men.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.

Mention is made in some of our last advices from New-York, that an embarkation is going on in that city of a considerable body of troops, which some suppose for the West-Indies, that the enemy were fortifying there with much industry, and discovered more uneasy apprehensions than they have done at any time since the commencement of the war. These advices add, that the American prisoners are treated with less cruelty than they have heretofore experienced.

A letter has been received here from a person of good intelligence, mentioning that orders had been received from England to make preparation for the embarkation of the troops in Rhode Island and New-York, for a long voyage. As the domination of Britain upon the sea, is now on the wane, it is highly probable the farsighted part of the government of that nation, may begin to be anxious for the safe return of the troops that have been so long employed here to the most cruel and dishonourable purposes: For as the British Ministry have gone on in the American war with an astonishing obstinacy and infatuation, so it is by no means to be relied on, that they will soon leave us. It is therefore without dispute the part of America, encouraged by the present highly favourable appearances in Europe and the West-Indies, to make every exertion for a speedy and happy close of the war.

NEW-LONDON, Sept. 9.

Wednesday arrived here a brig, in about 3 weeks from London, bound to New-York, but captured by the sloop Argo, Capt. Talbot, and Revenge, Capt. Post. She has on board 1000 barrels of flour, and about 500l. sterl. dry goods.

Sunday arrived the sloop Adventure, Thomas Jackson, late master, from Tobago with 92 hogsheads of rum. Prize to the privateers Argo and Revenge.

FISHKILL, Sept. 2.

Arbuthno.'s fleet, with the reinforcement of British troops, between three and four thousand men, are at last arrived at New York —The troops are landed on Long Island, in a very feeble condition, being much emaciated by sickness, and a long passage of thirteen weeks.

CHATHAM, (New-Jersey) September 7.

Yesterday sennight the enemy made an excursion to a place called the Pond, near Clark's Town up Hudson's River, and after burning Major Smith's and Capt. Smith's barns, took off eleven of the inhabitants, one of whom being sick, and unable to walk, they took a bed-cord and fastened it round his neck and that of his wife, making her drag him along; but she getting her neck loose, an officer fired a pistol at her, which providentially did no other mischief than burn her neck.

From Rivington's New-York Gazette, Aug. 30.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 26.

IN our last we mentioned the arrival of his majesty's ship Raisonable at the Hook. On Tuesday she came up and anchored in the North river; she is a very fine seventy four gun ships sheathed with copper, and has on board 400,000l. sterling, for the use of the royal army: On her passage with the fleet under the command of vice admiral Arbuthnot, about a month ago, she came up with the Ariadne, a copper bottomed frigate, esteemed one of the fastest sailors in the British navy, after a chase of four hours. Vice adm. Barrington was on board the Ariadne, returning from the West Indies to Great-Britain.

The fleets bound for Halifax and Quebec sailed from England with adm. Arbuthnot, and were by him dispatched at a proper distance from the coast, under the convoy of the Robust of 74 guns, capt. Jacobs.

Charlestown, October 13.

We are favoured with the following Intelligence, from a Letter written by a Gentleman of Distinction, dated Philadelphia, Sept. 18, 1779.

"——THE Boston and Deane continental Frigates have carried into different Eastern ports, on their last cruize, a copper-bottomed British sloop of war; the Sandwich packet, bound from New-York to Falmouth; a Brig from Madeira, bound for New-York, with 150 pipes of wine; a Glasgow ship fully laden with British merchandize; another merchant-vessel, and two New-York privateers, of ten guns each. On board the Glasgow Ship was found, a box containing Types, Paper, Silk, Ising glass, &c. to help the emissions of our dollars, and the party in whose care it was is secured. Major Gardner, who led the attack last summer on Port Royal island, is among the prisoners taken in the Sandwich. An embarkation of three Regiments sailed about 6 days since from New York, under convoy of a 64 gun ship, said to be intended for the West Indies, but supposed for Georgia or Pensacola: We are also informed, that another embarkation is in hand; this may be true or not, but tis undoubted, that there is every appearance of consternation in that garison and city.——"

Last Saturday morning an attempt was made to storm the lines of Savannah, which was attended with some loss, and fell chiefly on valuable officers. The fire from the garison was heavy and incessant for above an hour; but the situation of their gallies, which did the most execution, rendered it at last advisable to draw off the troops, and reserve them for a different operation. The details we have received being very imperfect, the publication of particulars must be deferred. —The aggregate loss of all the corps, we are assured, does not exceed 150 killed and wounded —The reduction of Savanna is not doubtful, but suspended only, because not worth so many lives as might be sacrificed by a more rapid progress.

On the 13 instant died, in the 54th year of his age, the Hon. James Parsons, Esq; a gentleman whose eminent talents in the profession of the law (to which he had the honour of raising some of the most distinguished personages amongst us) are well known, and who lately was Vice-president of this State. The many who have had experience of his warm friendship and his extensive humanity, have much reason to regret his loss; But to his family it is irreparable, for a more affectionate husband, tender father, kind relation, and indulgent master, there could not be.

The Death of the Hon. William Henry Drayton, late Chief Justice of this State, and one of its Delegates to Congress, at so early a period of life as 38 years, is very much regretted by all his countrymen, but exceedingly so, by those that knew him well. He had a head to contrive, a temper to persuade, and a hand to execute, plans of the most extensive utility to his country: few men possessed an equal knowledge of the human heart, or a superior vigour of soul: His enterprizing great mind, encouraged him to attempt, what, to the cold and phlegmatic, appeared impossible; and his attempts were generally crowned with success. By his death, the American States have lost one of their principal supports, and posterity may regret, that his early fate prevented him, from exerting his great Talents, towards organising this new world into a great, happy, and flourishing empire.

Stolen or Strayed

ON or about Sunday the 1st of July, from off Charles-Town Green,

A Dapple-grey Gelding, about 15 hands high, and near 5 years old, neither docked nor branded; his mane has been hogged, but was somewhat grown out, his tail swept the ground—he has neither Scar nor Blemish, but had a small crush when lost, on the point of his shoulders, and another under the off side of the Seat, from the Saddle.

If Strayed 30 Dollars will be given on his Delivery at the State Printing-Office; but, if Stolen, Fifty Dollars will be paid for taking up the Horse and Thief.——Information has been given, that a Negro carried him away to a Plantation no very great distance from Charlestown; as this Advertisement will be continued, the Owner of such plantation will not have it in his Power to plead Ignorance if the horse should be found on his Premises.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed at TIMOTHY and BODEN's Office, in the State-House, where Advertisements, &c. are received.
